No intimation has yet been received regarding the approval of the draft sale deed by the Government of India.

15 Section 67A of the Bangalore Municipal Law lays down that a duty on transfer of property shall be levied in the form of a surcharge on the duty imposed by the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, as applied to the Station on all instruments of transfer of immovable property situated within the limits of the Station, by sale, gift, mortgage or otherwise, which may be executed after the introduction of the above duty at a rate not exceeding 2 per centum on the amount of the consideration, the value of the property or the amount x secured by the instrument as set forth therein, as the case may be, and shall be recovered from the transferors of immovable property of a value exceeding Rs.5,000. According to section 29(c) of the Indian Stamp Act, the stamp duty on a deed of conveyance is payable by the grantee. Hence the ordinary stamp duty is payable by the authorities of the St. Joseph's College and the transfer duty by the Government of India.

16 Under the rules framed by the Hon'ble the Resident for the collection of the transfer duty levied under section

67A

Rule 1 of S.N.23 F. 179-1920

67A of the Bangalore Municipal Law, the transfer duty should be paid and recovered in the same way and under the same procedure as the ordinary duty imposed on such instruments by the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, as applied to the Station. According to the proviso (1) to section 3 of the Indian Stamp Act, no duty is chargeable in respect of any instrument executed by, or on behalf of, or in favour of, the Government in cases where, but for this exemption, the Government would be liable to pay the duty chargeable in respect of such instrument. It appears therefore, that no transfer duty can be charged when there is no liability for the ordinary stamp duty at all, as the transfer duty is only in the nature of a surcharge on the stamp duty levied under the Indian Stamp Act.

x Section 67A of the Bangalore Municipal Law.

When a question of this kind arose in the year 1927, it was decided by the Collector, C & M Station, Bangalore, that the exemption contemplated by the proviso to the explanation to section 24 of the Indian Stamp Act, was also applicable to claim exemption from the transfer duty levied under section 67A of the Bangalore Municipal Law. - vide S.N. 4 ~~to~~ 8 of Sub-Registrar's file No.I of 1927.

18

It appears that in a recent case (viz., on 5th August 1936) when the Collector conveyed the quarters of the

Assistant

Ascertained from the Sub-Registrar, C & M Station, Bangalore.

Assistant Post Master situated opposite to the Cantonment Railway Station to one Hanifa Bai for Rs.6,000/- no transfer duty was paid on the instrument of transfer.

19

In the circumstances it appears that the Government of India are not liable for the payment of the transfer duty. But before replying to the Principal, St. Joseph's College, Bangalore, on this question, the Collector may, if approved, be requested U. O. for favour of his views.

Draft ad-interim reply is submitted for approval.

2. It has been proposed in the above letter that the plot of land required as a playing ground for the St. Joseph's College, Bangalore, should first be transferred to the Mysore Assigned Tract Administration and then sold to the College authorities. As this will introduce unnecessary complications in accounting it is considered desirable that the land should be sold to the College authorities by the Survey of India Department direct. Such a direct sale does not appear to affect the terms of the mortgage deed in the form of Appendix N to the Grant-in-aid Code for Indian Schools, and the Government of India would be glad to know whether you see any objection to it.
